SOPQ Questions/Comments:

Re: Bonding, what is the project prequalification number?

We have never needed to bond a maintenance project, so we will have to find out if we are able to bond a specific or close to "engineer's estimate" for this particular project.

SOPQ Answers:

Please note, the bonding requirements have been removed. It has been determined that bonding is not required for this project. This change is reflected in Addendum #1 posted on November 4, 2014.
